Nixon Gives No Hint of Appointment

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has considered his next appointment to the Supreme Court for one weekend but there has been no indication when a decision will be announced.

The White House disclosed Friday that Justice Hugo L. Black had retired after 34 years because of ill health, giving Nixon the opportunity to make his third appointment to the court and solidify its tenuous conservative majority.

"I have no idea, no way of knowing," said a White House press aide when asked whether the President was near a decision following a weekend stay at nearby Camp David, Md. Nixon reportedly spent part of his time studying a list of seven potential successors.

Names of those under consideration have not been made public.

Nixon's first two appointees, Chief Justice Warren E. Burger and Justice Harry A. Blackmun, are generally considered the most conservative members on the nine-man court.

If, as expected, Nixon appoints another conservative, the appointment would solidify a shift away from the judicial activism undertaken under the leadership of former Chief Justice Earl Warren—and generally supported by Blackmun and Blackmun already command a one-vote majority on many issues.

Speculation on a possible successor has centered on Rep. Richard H. Poff, R-Va., who fits the basic requirements set down by Nixon himself.

Nixon has all but promised his next nominee will be a Southerner and, almost certainly, will be a strict constructionist—someone who believes the Constitution should be interpreted literally.

Poff's views are generally in tune with the President's, he is a Southerner, and at 47 would add a touch of youth to the aging court.

Sheriff Going to Crime Conference

Sheriff Henry Sinyard of Hempstead has been selected to attend a conference on Community Corrections in the 20th Century in Dallas, September 22-24, it was announced by David McVay of the Arkansas Crime Commission.

The conference is sponsored by the National Sheriffs Association in cooperation with law enforcement officers, assistants and administration. Its purpose is to assist sheriffs and other law enforcement officers to develop effective programs which will be eligible for federal funding.

A major part of the conference will deal with methods developing successful applications under Part E, one of the new amendments to the federal crime control act which provides federal funds for local correction.

Sheriff Sinyard is one of 20 Arkansas Sheriffs selected to attend the conference. He was picked because of particular interest and participation in community crime programs which are being implemented to reduce crime.

Entertainer Told to Rest

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Entertainer Sammy Davis Jr. will need about six weeks of complete rest to recover from a liver disorder.

Davis, 45, complained of abdominal pains Friday night, and was taken to a Sunrise Hospital.

A hospital spokesman said, "Mr. Davis is here for tests and observation of misalignment of the liver caused by too much exertion on his small frame."

Davis had one week left in a 3½-week engagement at the Sands Hotel and planned to leave for a Vietnam tour Sept. 25.

More Trouble Brewing in Middle East

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

War Minister Lt. Gen. Mohammed Sadek of Egypt has issued an order to the armed forces to "hit back immediately and violently and silence any Israeli attempt to fire at our positions," the Egyptian press reported today.

Sadek's order went to all units on the Suez Canal front and said that they should "use all kinds of weapons to immediately stop the Israeli attempt."

The order followed fighting Saturday in which Egypt charged that Israel attempted to attack Egyptian positions with Shrike missiles.

The semi-official Cairo newspaper Al-Ahram reported that one of these missiles hit an Israeli position at Ferdan, in the northern sector, causing an explosion.

Later, the official Mideast News Agency reported that the Egyptian armed forces were at "maximum degree of alert."

Egyptian Foreign Minister Mahmoud Riad is scheduled to go to Washington Sept. 29 to talk with U.S. Secretary of State William P. Rogers, informed sources said today.

Egypt has been increasingly critical of America's quiet diplomacy trying to negotiate a settlement to the Middle East crisis.

With Red China Seated Seems Hot Times Ahead for United Nations

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

AP Special Correspondent

With Red China now apparently assured of seats in the General Assembly and the Security Council, it seems likely that hot times are ahead for the United Nations.

Over the years, Peking has been one of the organization's severest critics. It would be far from surprising if the Red Chinese, after feeling their way about, proceeded with a campaign that would attempt to place the so-called Third World in conflict with the United States and the Soviet Union.

The Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, in a study called "Issues before the 26th General Assembly," sees a possibility that Peking will assume the role of champion and protector of small nations against alleged machinations by the Russians and Americans.

This might mean, it adds, that "the two superpowers might be forced to change their indifferent attitude toward the smaller states, in order to

School Officials Look to Government for Way to Help Finance Busing

By JOHN BECKLER

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) —

Southern school officials, hit with the high cost of busing, are coming to Congress seeking ways around President Nixon's ban on the use of federal funds to help meet the cost.

In at least one case, congressional sources report, the Department of Health, Education and Welfare has agreed to match a school district's busing costs with a federal grant if the busing program is paid for out of local funds.

The money the school officials have their eyes on is the $1.5 billion Nixon has asked Congress to provide to help defray the costs of desegregation. Until Nixon announced on Aug. 3 none of the money could be used for busing many school districts were planning to spend it for just that purpose.

The announcement, which was coupled with Nixon's repudiation of a desegregation plan prepared by HEW for Austin, Tex., was criticized by civil rights groups as a bid for Southern political support. But it has not made the President popular with school officials or congressmen representing school districts carrying out busing plans.

In their view, since it is either the federal courts or HEW that is requiring the busing, the federal government has an obligation to help pay the costs.

That refrain is being heard frequently these days at meetings between Southern congressmen and members of the House Education and Labor Committee, which has the desegregation bill before it.

One such recent meeting involved a congressman and school officials from a large Southern city facing heavy busing costs, a representative of HEW, and a member of the Education and Labor Committee.

A participant in the meeting, who did not want to be identified, said that after the school officials explained it would cost $2.2 million to pay the busing costs, the HEW representative agreed the district could get a $2.2 million grant under the desegregation bill if it paid the busing costs out of state and local funds.

An education committee member, Rep. Edith Green, D-Ore., who has long opposed busing and regards such an arrangement as "just hypocrisy," is preparing an amendment to the desegregation bill designed to block it.

Her amendment would prevent HEW from approving any desegregation plan calling for the expenditure of state and local funds for any purpose for maintain their own influence in the United Nations.

For example, China could demand that disarmament talks no longer be the exclusive province of the big powers. Peking could insist that a commission be set up to include smaller nations, perhaps a large number of them, to talk about such things as disarmament and nuclear weapons. That might not enhance the chances for any meaningful agreement, but it would be a great opportunity for Peking politicking.

The Middle East is included in the area which Premier Chou En-lai calls the "medium and small nations." Red China long has been poking about the edges of that chronic crisis and giving aid and propaganda support to some Arab organizations.

As a U.N. member, Red China could thrust herself more forcefully into the Middle East situation. It could insist that the four power talks be con-which federal funds cannot be spent.

Other committee members are working on amendments designed to breach Nixon's flat prohibition against federal funds for busing. The one apparently having the most support would permit federal spending where the courts have ordered busing.

Guard Faces Possible Loss of 100,000

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army National Guard faces a potential loss of about 100,000 men before next summer as draft-induced volunteers finish their obligated service, Pentagon officials say.

This will be offset only partially by enlistments of men with prior service in the regular Army and by 17 and 18-year-old recruits.

The prospect now worrying defense authorities is that the Guard will fall significantly below its authorized strength of 400,000 men for the first time in years, even if the draft is extended.

Draft calls are certain to be lower, so that few young men are likely to sign up with the Guard to avoid conscription into the Army.

Defense officials say a weakening of the Guard has serious implications for national security. The Guard, they say, has been given a more important role in the nation's war plans than ever before since the Regular Army is being slashed to its smallest size in more than 10 years.

The National Guard is starting a heavy recruiting campaign. But officials said they are not optimistic, despite Defense Department plans to ask Congress for money to pay enlistment and re-enlistment bonuses and to provide a number of incentives to join the Guard.

The wave of losses this fiscal year will come from the drop-off of most of the young men who enlisted in the Guard in 1965, at a time when the United States was building up for the war in Vietnam with increased draft calls.

These men were exempted from the draft when they chose to enlist for about six months of active duty training after which they returned home as civilians with an additional 5½ years of obligation to drill regularly with a Guard or Reserve unit.

Only about 10 per cent of these young men are staying in the Guard after their six-year obligation expires, Guard officials report.

This Reserve Enlistment Program was such a popular refuge from the draft during the Vietnam war that the Guard was filled up. The waiting list at one point contained more than 100,000 names.

Sees a Great Future for Arkansas

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — Rep. Wilbur Mills, D-Ark., predicted here Sunday that Arkansas will become one of the fastest growing regions in the United States.

He said that the $800 million businessmen have invested in the Arkansas navigation project "will make a lot to this valley."

Mills spoke at the dedication of a new building belonging to Arkansas Best Corp. here.

Mills said during his speech that if American's ever lose confidence in America and do not invest in its future the country will go downhill.

He said that the fact that Americans do invest in the United States "should make us wonder whether there is not more good than bad in this country."

$40 Million Worth Drugs Discovered

NEW YORK (AP) — "Obviously the work of top professionals," said the head of the federal narcotics bureau, describing the discovery of 200 pounds of heroin valued at $40 million concealed in an imported Jaguar car.

Agents seized the cache and arrested five persons on narcotics smuggling charges Sunday in what was termed the second-largest heroin seizure ever made in the city.

John E. Ingersoll, director of the Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, said the car arrived here last Wednesday aboard the Queen Elizabeth 2.

He said the heroin was packed in half-kilo glassine bags that were hidden under a false floorboard, filled an empty section of the transmission and were stuffed in hollow compartments in the doors.

"It appeared as if they had put the heroin in and then built the car around it," said one agent.

"This is obviously the work of top professionals, because by outside examination you could not tell that the car had been dismantled to secrete the heroin," Ingersoll said.

Charged with conspiracy to smuggle drugs were Jean Pierre Andre Huguen, 36, of Marseilles; Etienne Charles Gunther and his wife Raymond, both 33, of Paris; and two Cuban refugees, George Warren-Perez, 48, and Luis Gomez Ortega, 37, both of whom now live in North Bergen, N.J.

The largest heroin seizure in New York City was 246 pounds taken in 1968.

First Taste of Autumn Weather

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Arkansas got its first taste of autumn-like weather over the weekend and the National Weather Service said Monday the chilly temperatures would continue for the next several days.

Cloudy skies covered most of the state early Monday. Temperatures dipped into the 40s in the northwest portion of the state as rain and drizzle helped keep the temperature down.

The Weather Service said another cold front could be expected to move through the state by Wednesday. The already cool air will be reinforced, the Weather Service said, and temperatures could be expected to drop 18-20 degrees below normal.

The forecast called for considerable cloudiness today becoming mostly fair by tonight or Tuesday. Low tonight in the 50s. High Tuesday in the upper 60s to low 70s.

The extended outlook called for a chance of rain again Wednesday or Thursday with cool temperatures through Friday. Lows were expected to be in the 40s and 50s with highs in the 70s.

Overnight lows included 47 at Fayetteville, 47 at Harrison, 54 at Jonesboro, 53 at Pine Bluff, 56 at Memphis, 54 at Little Rock, 43 at Fort Smith, 51 at Texarkana and 54 at El Dorado.

Precipitation for the 24-hour period that ended at 7 a.m. today included .28 of an inch at Fayetteville, 1.09 at Harrison, .15 at Jonesboro, .08 at Pine Bluff, .59 at Memphis, .30 at Little Rock, .27 at Fort Smith and .02 at Texarkana and El Dorado.

Finance Ministers in Europe, U.S. Putting Economy Plan to Test

By EDMOND LEBRETON

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Finance ministers abroad and Congress at home are putting President Nixon's new economic program to its first major tests since its dramatic birth just over a month ago.

The ministers of 10 major trading nations, including Secretary of the Treasury John B. Connally, are back in their capitals for more reflection after meeting last week in London. They failed to produce an agreement on a firm footing for the world monetary system, sent reeling by the United States' cutting the dollar loose from gold and slapping a 10 per cent charge on imports. They will try again later this month.

At home, Congress is starting surgery on Nixon's tax proposals, and the Cost of Living Council reports the wage-price freeze generally working well, although the council is discussing with the Justice Department possible legal action in 20 to 25 cases.

Recent indexes of the nation's economic performance are mixed and overall not particularly encouraging, still largely reflecting pre-freeze conditions.

Connally shook up his foreign colleagues with a hard-nosed demand: help in achieving a $13 billion improvement in the U.S. balance of payments.

He would not buy a proposal from other countries for priority discussion of a short list of items, including the price of gold and removal of the surcharge. And with that position set, the meeting broke up. Another is scheduled for Oct. 25.

In Washington, the House Ways and Means Committee today begins the closed door, rolled-up-sleeves phase of its work on Nixon's tax recommendations. Indications are it will approve the general outline, but with major modifications, including a $2 billion shift of tax relief from business to low-earning individuals.

To keep alive legislation extending the draft, Nixon gave in on postponing a $2.4 billion pay raise for the military. Its effective date is Oct. 3, right in the middle of the 90-day price-wage freeze.

The prospect of a big military pay increase is sure to have a strong effect on congressional consideration of Nixon's plan to postpone for six months scheduled raises for the government's civilian employees.

State Court Elaborates on Ruling

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court issued a supplemental opinion today elaborating on its order forbidding an exchange of circuits arranged by Circuit Court Judge Russell C. Roberts for the empaneling of a grand jury to probe a fee system he had used.

The opinion by Associate Justice Lyle Brown stated that the court's view was: "A trial judge should not exercise the discretionary powers of his office in a matter in which he will be personally affected."

Roberts had arranged to switch circuits temporarily with Circuit Court Judge William J. Kirby of Little Rock after Pros. Atty. Alex G. Streett of Russellville asked for a grand jury session to look into the fee system Roberts had practiced in Pope County.

The court ruled last June that the exchange of circuits arranged by Roberts would not be permitted.

Kirby presides in the 6th Judicial Circuit. Pope County is one of five counties in Roberts' 5th Judicial Circuit.

The Supreme Court ruled in a lawsuit early this year that the fee system under which fees were forfeited by defendants who received suspended sentences was illegal.

Brown said in the supplemental opinion that in choosing a judge with whom to exchange, Roberts would not be performing a purely ministerial act, "but will be selecting a judge based upon Judge Roberts' own judgment—it would clearly constitute an act of discretion."

At the same time, the court made permanent the temporary order it has issued barring Kirby from changing circuits with Roberts. The court said the order in no way reflected on Kirby's ability to act impartially in the case, but that because of "compelling public policy" it could not sustain the switch arranged by Roberts.

The opinion today said that state statutes, the Constitution,

Enemy Wipes Out Cambodia Fuel Supply

By GEORGE ESPER

Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — Enemy forces destroyed about two-thirds of Cambodia's fuel supply on the outskirts of the nation's capital today and dealt a heavy blow to a South Vietnamese base for operations inside eastern Cambodia.

Apparently slipping in on boats across marshlands, about 30 enemy troops hit the fuel tank farm at Phnom Penh with rockets that set fire to millions of gallons of gasoline and oil in 15 tanks, owned by Esso and Shell.

The loss of the fuel could mean a harsh blow to an already limping economy in Cambodia.

The attack on the South Vietnamese base was the third setback for the Saigon command in three days.

Official reports said 21 South Vietnamese troops were killed and 64 wounded in coordinated mortar and commando attacks on the headquarters of the South Vietnamese 43rd Task Force and two other positions ranging from two to five miles northwest of Tay Ninh and about 10 miles from the Cambodian border.

The South Vietnamese command said 52 enemy troops were killed and 25 weapons captured in a nightlong battle.

Tay Ninh, 55 miles northwest of Saigon, is the forward base for South Vietnamese operations inside eastern Cambodia. It is 80 miles southeast of Phnom Penh.

Field reports said the 13th North Vietnamese and Viet Cong Sapper Battalion, perhaps a total of 300 commandos, launched the attacks around Tay Ninh early today after a 100-round mortar barrage hit South Vietnamese positions. The sappers withdrew before dawn.

Field reports said most of the South Vietnamese casualties came from the shelling attack against the permanent positions. One infantry battalion of about 400 men suffered the most severe losses with 17 men killed and 43 wounded.

In Phnom Penh, about 30 sappers with rocket launchers blew up 15 large oil storage tanks, striking a heavy blow to Cambodia's struggling economy.

The tanks containing millions of gallons of gasoline, diesel and fuel oil went up in a roar of flames. Black smoke billowed more than 100 feet into the night sky and fire lit up the northern quarter of the Cambodian capital.

Associated Press correspondent Robin Mannock reported from Phnom Penh that the fires were still burning out of control at noon, spouting high-octane aviation gasoline and threatening to ignite new explosions.

The fires erupted when about 30 enemy sappers, who reportedly approached two tank complexes from the west by boat across marshlands, fired bazooka-type rockets into several tanks. Blazing gasoline and other fuels poured out and spread the blaze to other tanks.

The tank complexes, owned by the Esso and Shell oil companies, are located on the west bank of the Tonle River. An oil company official said at this stage it was impossible to estimate the full extent of the damage.

Fire Destroys Paris School

PARIS, Ark. (AP)—A fire of undetermined origin destroyed the Paris Elementary School Saturday.

Authorities said the fire apparently started in the basement kitchen of the two-story brick structure, built in 1936, and spread to the rest of the building.

There was no estimate of the loss, but officials said the building was insured.

The structure was the only elementary school in Paris.

STEVE CALDWELL AND DEE SINGLETON

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

MOTHER, HOW COULD YOU?
Dear Helen:

My 13-year-old daughter has two girl friends whom I like a lot. But something bothers me terribly. These three are inseparable, day and night. They "sleep over" constantly, and because we all live almost next door, we parents seldom know how many we'll find in our daughters' bedrooms - all three or none.

It's got so they wear only pants, and if I mention a new dress, you'd think I offered to inject our Peggy with the plague. I know the fad now is pants, but shouldn't they want to be GIRLS once in a while?

Now if there was a boy involved, I'd know how to handle this situation, but how can I question Peg without making myself look like a "dirty old mother"? I've never seen anything that looks "strange," but I read so much about this sort of thing, I can't help having suspicions. Am I - AB-NORMALLY WORRIED?

Dear Worried:
You've described three perfectly normal young teenage girls. For Pete's sake, don't make yourself look or feel like a "dirty old mother" by suspecting homosexuality (which is what you imply, though you're afraid to say it).

Trouble with many parents these days is: they read too much! —H.

Dear Helen:
The letter from the suicidal college student struck a resonant chord in me. I too have felt the sting of rejection from my friends.

I'm a young mother of three. I hold a Master's Degree and am working for my Doctorate. My husband is a dental surgeon. We have a lovely home, two cars, the whole bit.

In July, 1970, I made the third and most serious of four suicide attempts. The universal response was, "She? But how could it be?" After that I found that people treated me as if I had leprosy - and I had had many "friends" because I had been on the board of directors for several political and charitable organizations, also had served on the Board of Education.

Their attitude reinforced my feeling of worthlessness and insanity. Then I started research into causes of suicide, and found one quote which might help: "The fear of people committing suicide is related to man's fear of losing control of his drives, and the primary fear of killing or being killed. This universal phobia makes man doubly afraid of those who threaten to commit the real act."

Reading such books as Dr. Karl Menninger's "Man Against Himself," Rollo May's "Love and Will," and Dr. de Joost Meerloo's "Suicide and Mass Suicide," has at least convinced me that suicide is a symptom of an illness, not a solution. These experts make me feel less like a freak, and I can better understand my impulse as well as society's rejection of it. After all, if it's been studied, tabulated and described, then I'm not the only one afflicted and perhaps there's a cure. —M.F.

There IS a cure, but unlike medical treatment, it's different with each individual, and sometimes one makes many wrong starts before the right key fits into the lock.

If only science could solve the mystery of depressions - perhaps discover a universal medicine to treat them - we'd be fifty steps nearer Utopia. —H.

Television and Radio

NEW YORK (AP) — Eleven new series had their network television premieres over the three nights of the weekend, a figure that rises to 14 if one counts three made-for-TV film features. Over-all, unhappily, quality did not match quantity.

On the plus side were a couple of comedy half hours and two action-adventure hours. Decision must be reserved, pending further inspection, of several others.

Don Adams is back on NBC with "The Partners" on Saturdays, this time playing a fumbling police detective, with Rupert Crosse as his partner. In mood and comedy style, it is a twin to Adams' old "Get Smart" series. The first segment opened with Don going to work without his pants and wound up with the partners forgetting to retrieve the stolen loot. For what it is—a show with special appeal to young audiences—the rough-and-tumble comedy works pretty well.

Then there is CBS's "Funny Face," also on Saturdays, with newcomer Sandy Duncan in the title role. This is the giddy adventures of a nice girl working her way through college in Los Angeles. Miss Duncan is a real find—fresh, appealing and amusing. The program itself shows an almost embarrassing kinship to "the Mary Tyler Moore Show" in the working-girl surroundings—the acid-tongued girl friend, the funny landlady and so on. The premiere program had our heroine doing live Commercials for a used car lot, a Los Angeles TV phenomenon. Mostly because of Miss Duncan, it was a pleasant half hour.

If you enjoy "The F.B.I.," you will undoubtedly enjoy "O'Hara, U.S. Treasury." David Janssen appears as the intrepid agent in the CBS Friday night action show which, like the ABC program about the G-men, has the blessing of the federal department and is alleged to have its plots based on Treasury files. The first program involved narcotics traffic—standard plot stuff—but the program has good production values, moves fast and there's plenty of fists and guns in action.

And if you like "O'Hara," you probably will find that Glenn Ford's new "Cade's County" on CBS Sundays slides down easily.

The first time out, Sam Cade, the hero, was busy dodging a professional assassin. Ford plays a sober-sides sheriff of some Southwestern area with a sort of angry conviction. There were auto chases, plenty of gun play but not much subtlety.

Booneville Sanatorium

Seems Doomed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The mood was one of eventual doom for the Booneville sanatorium during a board meeting here Sunday.

"The handwriting is on the wall," said Dr. John Woods of Mena, board member.

"Our funds are reduced," he said. "We're on the downhill. We cannot improve with the funds we've got."

The recent session of the legislature reduced the sanatorium's budget to $1.7 million each year of the biennium, which is a cut of about $450,000.

"I think the Booneville sanatorium will have to be closed," said Dr. John Harrell, director of the state Health Department's Division of Communicable Diseases.

During the meeting, the board rejected a proposal by Dr. John D. Chultz of Little Rock, for the four doctor board members to review the case histories of each of the patients at the sanatorium to see if they really needed to be there. His motion, similar to a previous motion, died for lack of a second.

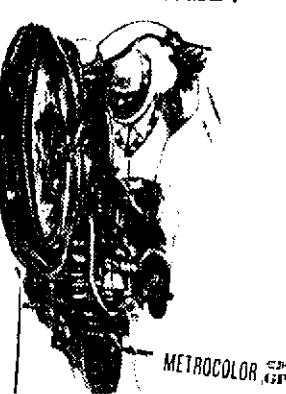

Members of the board said that the motion appeared to criticize the staff of the sanatorium.

Shultz insisted his motive was merely to relieve the staff. He said that there was not enough professional help at the hospital.

Richardson, Ferguson CarryPorkers

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — With nine seconds left in the first half Arkansas quarterback Joe Ferguson trotted to the sidelines for a conference with his coaches.

The score was tied 10-10 and the Razorbacks had the ball on the Oklahoma State four.

When play resumed Ferguson handed the ball to tailback Jon Richardson on the inside belly series and Richardson made two OSU players miss him as he skipped into the end zone for the touchdown.

A 35-yard run by Ferguson and a 39-yard sprint by Dicky Morton accounted for two second-half touchdowns and complete a 31-10 victory.

Richardson's touchdown shortly before the half was his second of the game and also came on the inside belly series which begins with a fake to the fullback. The junior tailback, who had his best day as a Razorback with 154 yards on 24 carries, scored on a seven-yard run midway through the second period.

"Richardson's two runs made all the difference in the ball game," said Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles. "He made both of the runs on his own. The one right before the half was the turning point of the game."

"That series is great for short yardage," Broyles said. "The ball is like a magnet. It draws a crowd to the inside."

In the second half Arkansas looked like the better team but the Razorbacks missed excellent scoring opportunities on their first two possessions before putting the game away.

Ferguson did that, surprising the Cowboys with a 35-yard run off the triple option.

The outside effectiveness of Richardson and the speedy Morton cleared the path for Ferguson. After Ferguson faked to fullback Skipper DeBorde on the first stage of the triple option the Cowboys rushed to the outside to protect against the pitch out. Ferguson read the defense, ducked inside and scampered home.

"Joe has good speed but we just didn't expect that," Broyles said.

Besides his running, Ferguson had another outstanding game throwing the ball. He completed 20 of 29 passes for 228 yards. Last week, he hit on 16 of 27 for more than 220 yards in a 51-20 victory over California.

"Joe sets up faster than anyone we've ever had," Broyles said. "He doesn't have to lean into his passes. He also has great ability on third down."

Once again, the defense made some big plays.

Broyles figures the Razorbacks can win if they prevent the opposition from making a first down on six of every ten possessions.

"OSU failed on 10 of 15 and California on eight of 10," Broyles said. "That's a remarkable record."

The Cowboy's Steve Pettus took the opening kickoff in the end zone and raced back to the Arkansas 42 before Bill McClard and Jack Morris managed to chase him out-of-bounds.

OSU made 12 yards in two tries but then on third down from the 29 Jimmy Taylor and Louis Campbell broke up a Tony Pounds pass intended for flanker Dick Graham. Wes Pruss then missed a field goal attempt.

"We had our backs to the

Dodgers Keep Pressure on Giants

By BRUCE LOWITT
Associated Press Sports Writer
"That was a tough act to follow," Don Sutton smiled.

The act was Al Downing's three-hitter, his fourth shutout of the year, in Los Angeles' 12-0 first-game romp over Atlanta.

But Sutton followed it with ease, spinning a six-hitter that beat the Braves 4-0 in the finale of Sunday's doubleheader and kept the pressure of San Francisco in the National League West.

The sweep—the Dodgers' first twin-bill blanking in nearly three years—all but wiped out Atlanta's hopes of catching the California Cubs.

The two triumphs, coupled with San Francisco's 4-1 victory over San Diego, snapped half a game off the Giants' lead, putting them just 1½ games ahead of the Dodgers. The Braves, who trailed by a massive 12½ games just two weeks ago before closing within 5½ of the top, wound up seven games off the pace after the double drubbing.

In other National League games, the New York Mets downed Pittsburgh 5-2, St. Louis slammed Montreal 11-0, the Chicago Cubs beat Philadelphia 6-3 and Houston defeated Cincinnati 5-4 in 11 innings.

"If we'd had anything less than a sweep," Sutton said, "it would have really put the pressure on us. By being one-and-a-half back, we can catch the Giants in a day or two. Anything more wouldn't have really been tough."

Downing has been the Dodgers' biggest surprise of the season. The victory was his 19th of the season—so, naturally, everyone asked how he felt about joining the 20-win club.

"Winning 20 means a lot, sure," he replied, "but winning the pennant means a lot more. But if I do get 20 it means another win for the club, so in that respect I guess it does mean a lot."

Willie Davis drilled two singles, a double and a home run, driving in three runs that snapped Los Angeles out of a four-game tailspin.

"We had our backs against the wall, so we had to come through," he commented. "We're not laying down at all." The Dodgers came through overwhelmingly, unleashing a 19-hit attack, their biggest output of the season.

They collected 10 in the second game, including a homer by Duke Sims, but it was Willie Crawford's daring baserunning that really thrilled the 46,735 Dodgers fans.

With two out in the second inning, he stole home after doubling and moving to third on Jim Lefebvre's run-scoring grounder. Then, after singling with two away in the sixth, Lefebvre singled to right and Crawford stunned the Braves by steaming home all the way from first.

Los Angeles will finish its season at home while the Giants play their remaining nine games on the road—but San Francisco Manager Charlie Fox said that doesn't mean a thing.

"They're all tough now," he said. "I don't think anyone has an advantage. No game is going to be easy. This one sure wasn't."

The Giants won it on Hal Lanier's high-hopping bouncer that soared over charging second baseman Don Mason for a two-run single in the second inning, wiping out a 1-0 Padres lead provided by Ollie Brown's first-inning single.

Don Carrithers survived seven hits in the first four innings to post the victory, only the third in 15 games for the Giants.

The Pirates blew their chance to wrap up the East Division race at home as shortstop Jackie Hernandez opened the door to three unearned New York runs in a four-run first inning, two on Tim Lincecum's single.

The Bucs, who finish their season on the road, are assured of at least a tie for the flag. But, as Manager Danny Murtaugh said: "As long as you have one to go, there's a doubt."

The second-place Cards, a distant 8½ games out, kept their flickering hopes alive by unleashing a 15-hit attack while Steve Carlton, 19-9, shackled the Expos on three hits. Ted Simmons doubled home two runs in the fourth inning and

Hope in 2nd Win; Bruins Play Tonight

By BILL MOORE
Star Sports Writer
Last Friday night the Hope Bobcats packed victory number two under their belts with a hard earned second half comeback 18-15 win over the Sheridan Yellowjackets.

Although Sheridan led at halftime, 7-0, the Cats came back in the second half for three touchdowns while holding the Yellowjackets to one in the third quarter.

Hope's first score came on the first play of the second half that the Cats had possession of the ball when fullback David Johnson hit the hole off tackle, ran a few yards laterally and then took off upfield for a 97 yard touchdown run with the last 35 yards cleared with the help of tight end Steve Harris.

An attempt for two extra points on a pass play was barely foiled leaving Sheridan in the lead with a 7-6 margin.

Only a minute or so later the Cats got the ball back and this time, after getting to their own 43, quarterback Tommy Frazier handed the ball off to halfback Ray Wheelington. Wheelington took off up the middle all the way for a 57 yard romp down the right side. Again the try for two points backfired, but this time Hope had the lead, 12-7.

Not until the last quarter could the Cats score again, and only after Sheridan had taken a 15-12 lead.

After getting a fairly well sustained drive most of the way, Hope was sitting on the Yellowjacket 13 yard line with a little over ten minutes left in the game.

Taking the handoff from Frazier, Wheelington found a big hole off right tackle and slithered through for the remaining 13 yard to paydirt. Although the extra point attempt again failed, Hope had their 18-15 lead.

A last ditch drive by the Yellowjackets with less than three minutes remaining stalled at the Bobcat four yard line and Hope only had to run the clock out from there.

Overall, the defense played an outstanding game with special credit going to Kenneth Ellis, Rusty Quillen, and Steve Harris. And of course the rest of the unit played very well also.

Offensively, Hope had their troubles during the first half and sputtered every now and then in the second half also, but the blocking held up when it had to most of the time.

Hope's running game showed up fine again with over 300 yards rushing, although two costly fumbles at the Bobcat goal line cost Hope into giving Sheridan all of their points.

Tonight, the B-Bruins travel to Texarkana, Arkansas for a game at 7:30 p.m. with the B-team Razorbacks. The Bruins are 0-1 after last Monday's opening loss to Magnolia.

Texas Beats UCLA as Expected

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Texas Longhorns, who were the top-ranked college football team in the country until mid-afternoon last New Year's Day, apparently have their sights set on a return to the heights.

Darrell Royal's sophomore-spiced club, ranked third behind Nebraska and Notre Dame in last week's Associated Press poll, opened its season impressively Saturday with a 28-10 road victory over UCLA. Barreling over land like the longhorn steers for which they are nicknamed, the Texans gulped down 428 yards rushing from their fearsome Wishbone attack. Quarterback Eddie Phillips, whose 34-yard pass to Jim Moore with 34 seconds left in the first half snapped a 7-all deadlock, led the way with 142 yards on 20 carries and scored once himself.

Texas, however, probably will have a tough time closing in on the leaders when this week's poll is counted. Nebraska, No. 1, trounced Minnesota 35-7 and runner-up Notre Dame thrashed Northwestern 50-7.

Fifth-ranked Ohio State was idle but the rest of the Top Ten continued on their merry way behind offensive fireworks galore. Michigan, rated fourth, battered crippled Virginia 56-0 and sixth-ranked Arkansas downed a talented young Oklahoma State club 31-10.

The Nos. 7-8 teams, Auburn and Tennessee, warmed up for their important Southeastern Conference battle next weekend by crushing UT-Chattanooga and UC-Santa Barbara, respectively, 60-7 and 4-6. Alabama, No. 9, buried Southern Mississippi 42-6 and 10th-ranked Oklahoma whipped Southern Methodist 30-0.

Royal had to be impressed with the way his youngsters performed.

Plunkett, Manning Pull Upsets

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Rookie quarterbacks Jim Plunkett and Archie Manning made spectacular pro debuts to spice an incredible opening Sunday in the National Football League.

Plunkett and Manning, the No. 1 and No. 2 picks in last January's pro draft, led the New England Patriots and New Orleans Saints to the two most startling upsets on an opening day replete with surprises.

Plunkett, the Heisman Trophy winner from Stanford, threw two touchdown passes as the Pats stunned the Oakland Raiders 20-6.

Manning, who starred for Mississippi in college, sprinted around left end from the one on the last play of the game, to give the Saints an astounding 24-20 upset over the Los Angeles Rams.

Another rookie, cornerback Tom Hayes, from San Diego State, played a major role as the Atlanta Falcons humbled the favored San Francisco 49ers 20-17.

In other surprises the San Diego Chargers whipped the Kansas City Chiefs 21-14, the New York Giants edged the Green Bay Packers 42-40, the Washington Redskins overcame the St. Louis Cardinals 24-17, the Chicago Bears tripped the Pittsburgh Steelers 17-15, the Cleveland Browns routed the Houston Oilers 31-0 and the Denver Broncos held the Miami Dolphins to a 10-10 tie.

Elsewhere, form stood up as the Super Bowl champion Baltimore Colts whacked the New York Jets 22-0, the Dallas Cowboys, the only unbeaten, untied club in the preseason schedule, downed the Buffalo Bills 49-37 and the Cincinnati Bengals trampled the Philadelphia Eagles 37-14.

"Now we're winners and we want to keep it that way," said an elated Plunkett after his two TD passes in the second half upset the Raiders. His first scoring pass was a 33-yarder to Ron Sellers and the second a 20-yarder to Tom Beer.

Before his toss to Beer on a fake handoff Plunkett had set up the play with a 39-yard aerial to Randy Vataha.

"I might have made a mistake, but I never really thought about the pass," said Manning after his winning end run against the Rams on a pass-option play.

"I thought 'only one yard' and doggone it I knew I was going to get good blocking," Manning continued. "I saw a crack and dove and I knew I got over."

Manning had completed three passes for 42 yards to set up his winning sprint and give the Saints their first NFL victory after 12 consecutive losses.

Four interceptions of John Brodie passes, coupled with two Atlanta scoring passes from Bob Berry to Ken Burrow, helped the Falcons upset the 49ers.

But it was the rookie "Mr. Hayes" as coach Norm van Brocklin called him, that preserved the Falcons' triumph. He scooped up a fumble in the last three seconds on a play that erupted into a brawl as players from both benches spilled onto the field.

"I guess I started it," said Hayes who earlier had made two key interceptions. "One guy hit me when I was falling. I threw the ball at him because he hit me after the whistle. Then the fists started swinging everywhere."

A 26-yard run by Mike Garrett, a former Chief, gave the Chargers their victory over Kansas City. The Chiefs led 14-0 at halftime, but the Chargers rallied to tie on two TD passes by John Hadle before Garrett's winning scamper.

Down 42-24 the Packers almost pulled it out against the Giants, but an interception by linebacker Jim Fyles with 1:14 left preserved the New Yorkers' triumph after a winless exhibition season.

Dan Devine, Green Bay's new coach, suffered a broken leg on the sidelines in the last quarter when Doug Hart of the Packers was shoved out of bounds near the Green Bay bench while running back an interception. Devine was caught in the pileup.

The Redskins capitalized on four interceptions and three fumble recoveries to trip the

Orioles End Short Losing Streak

The Baltimore Orioles solved a three-game losing streak by lashing out with 18 hits for eight runs. Of course, there wasn't any pressure on them.

"How can there be pressure when we're that far out front," Manager Earl Weaver said Sunday after the Orioles bombed the Detroit Tigers 6-1. "If it got down to three or four in the loss column, there might be pressure."

If the Orioles had lost their fourth in a row, their American League East lead over the Tigers would have been four games. Now it is six.

But while Weaver wasn't feeling any pressure, he wasn't feeling cocky either. "It's still not over. Our work is still cut out for us—but there's no pressure."

The benefactor of the Orioles' best hitting attack of the season, which snapped the Tigers' seven-game winning streak, was Mike Cuellar, 19-9, who pitched a no-hitter for 5 1-3 innings and finished with a four-hitter.

The two runs that decided the game came in the Baltimore fifth on RBI singles by Frank Robinson and Boog Powell. Bobby Grich and Dave Johnson each had three hits and Brooks Robinson hit his 19th homer of the year.

In other AL action, Oakland downed Milwaukee 6-2. California nipped the Chicago White Sox 2-0. Boston edged Washington 4-3, the New York Yankees shaded Cleveland 4-2 and Minnesota topped Kansas City 6-3 before the Royals gained a split by winning 5-2.

Oakland's victory over Milwaukee was the 55th on the road for the West champion A's and broke the AL mark of 54 set by the 1939 New York Yankees in 154 games. The majors record is 60 by the Chicago Cubs in 1960. A three-run homer by Mike Epstein and the first in the majors by rookie Adrian Garrett sparked the A's.

The combined three-hit pitching of Andy Messersmith, winning his 18th game, and Dave LaRoche and Sandy Alomar's homer carried California over the White Sox and 20-game winner Wilbur Wood.

Boston's victory over Washington was keyed by Rico Petrocelli's home run and RBI double and Joe Lahoud's homer; and Ron Blomberg's run-scoring single in the ninth gave the Yankees their victory over Cleveland.

Leo Cardenas' three-run triple highlighted a four-run first inning in Minnesota's first-game victory over Kansas City.

Kansas City built a 5-0 lead, two runs coming on Gail Hopkins' double, and Ted Abernathy rescued rookie Monty Montgomery from a ninth-inning jam as the Royals took the nightcap.

America Keeps the Ryder Cup

ST. LOUIS (AP) — America has retained its grip on the Ryder Cup but none other than golf's latest superstar, Lee Trevino, believes the British are coming.

Trevino, a modern Paul Revere, sounded the warning after a U.S. team studded with the game's biggest names fought off Great Britain 18 1/2-13 1/2 in cup matches ending Saturday.

"The difference was just two or three matches," said non-playing captain Jay Hebert, whose U.S. team won seven of 16 closing singles matches and tied three others.

"I'm more than impressed by what I've seen of the British, and I know we're going to have our hands full the next 10 years," Hebert said. "They've got players you're going to hear of."

Britons to whom Trevino and Hebert referred include Peter Oosterhuis, a 23-year-old giant who Saturday afternoon snapped Arnold Palmer's cup unbeaten string at 11, 3 and 2.

While Oosterhuis was trimming the leg-weary Palmer with a rich assortment of irons shots, 22-year-old Scotsman Bernard Gallacher was handing Masters champ Charles Coody a 2-1 defeat.

The U.S. victory, the country's 15th in 19 series of matches, was already sealed when Brian Barnes toppled Miller Barber 2 and 1 and 24-year-old Harry Bannerman nudged 44-year-old Gardner Dickinson by the same score.

Another British star, 27-year-old Tony Jacklin, had a luckless three days in cup competition but is certain to be a thorn for America in future matches.

"The British could have won this. And in 10 years I think they'll win it here and win it at home, too," warned Trevino.

New controls at our fingertips mean more power at yours.

This is an artist's conception of one of five AP&L Regional Dispatch Centers being built.

At AP&L our goal has always been to use the most up-to-date technology to keep power at your fingertips.

So, construction is beginning on five regional dispatch centers that will monitor our system and detect trouble (such as the overloading of a major circuit).

Not only can the dispatch center spot the trouble, but it can prevent or alleviate the problem. In many cases, our new system will enable the operator to restore service on your line from several miles away. This procedure will greatly reduce the time involved in sending an emergency crew to restore service.

Our five dispatch centers add up to just another major step in our continuing efforts to provide uninterrupted service to our growing family of over 370,000 customers. Improving the quality of our service improves the quality of your life.

Field Goal Hands Tech Another Loss

By DENNE H. FREEMAN Associated Press Sports Writer The soap opera folks could have a world of fun with the buildup for Saturday's Southwest Conference clash between the defending champion Texas Longhorns and Texas Tech. Will Longhorn quarterback Eddie Phillips overcome a pesky hamstring muscle pull in time? Can Texas Tech Jim Carlen eliminate the costly mistakes that have cost the Red Raiders two intersectional clashes? Are Texas Coach Darrell Royal's sophomore troops too green? Goodness. What prime time competition for As The World Turns.

Royal is deeply bothered about Phillips' hamstring problems and said after the Longhorns returned from a 28-10 victory over UCLA: "I am concerned that he may not be able to work out or play against Texas Tech." But Phillips, who gained 142 yards rushing and completed a 36-yard touchdown pass against the UCIANS, said, "I pulled a muscle in the second quarter and it stretched out in the last touchdown. It's not serious just one of those nagging things."

Royal said Phillips pulled a muscle about two and one-half weeks before the season began. Phillips was sore after the game and admitted the leg "was a little stiff."

Royal was proud of the way his sophomore-laden troops rallied after trailing UCLA 7-0. "We looked a little ragged at times but you can expect that in an opening game when you have several inexperienced players," Royal said. "The pleasing thing was that after they got their field goal, we moved the length of the field not making any mistakes. That's jelling into an outstanding offensive football team ... It's something you can hang your hat on and know you can do it again."

The mystery surrounding Texas Tech's early sinking spell was dissected by Carlen. The Red Raiders tumbled 13-10 to New Mexico after Joe Hartshorne's 33-yard field goal with three seconds left. A lost fumble by quarterback Charles Napper at the Lobo 16 late in the fourth quarter with the score tied 10-10 opened the door for New Mexico.

"I think the difference in this year's team and last year's team is that last year we got a lot of good breaks early," Carlen said. "This team just can't seem to get a good break. The best thing we have going for us is our kids' attitudes. We could have been 2 and 0 instead of 0 and 2."

New Mexico Coach Rob Winter has this warning for Texas: "They made some errors ... but Texas Tech is a tough team."

Arkansas was the only other SWC team to uphold the loop's proud intersectional football record Saturday with a solid 31-10 victory over Oklahoma State.

Texas Christian, in shocking lavender, celebrated coach Jim Pittman's debut with a thorough 42-0 licking of Tarrant County rival Texas at Arlington.

One of the bright spots in the TCU victory—besides the classy light purple uniforms—was the performance of sophomore quarterback Kent Marshall who replaced veteran Steve Judy in the second half and wheeled the Horned Frogs to four touchdowns. Marshall zoomed 25 yards for a touchdown on his very first varsity play. TCU also displayed a most aggressive defense.

The other games were strictly off the obit page. Houston died 18-7 on a last second field goal to Arizona State but nobody else scored. Louisiana State massacred the inept Texas Aggies 37-0. Oklahoma bludgeoned SMU 30-0. Kansas blanked Baylor 22-0 and Rice tumbled 24-0 to Southern California.

That gave the SWC a 3-6 record against outside foes—not exactly a scrapbook weekend. Things could get worse this week.

For example, the Texas Aggies must play No. 1 ranked Nebraska—on the road. TCU also is on the road against unbeaten Washington and its passer master quarterback Sonny Sixkiller.

In other games, Indiana is at Baylor. Houston is at Cincinnati. Tulane is at Rice.

By Oswald & James Jacoby

Oswald: "It doesn't happen often, but occasionally an opponent will interfere with your Blackwood sequence by bidding over four no-trump. Sometimes this bid will really upset your apple cart. Other times it should not be of much annoyance provided you know how to handle the situation."

Jim: "In JACOBY MODERN we use the simplest defense against jamming bids. We double to show no aces and pass to show one ace. This isn't a patented Jacoby defense. It's called DOPI, which stands for double shows zero—pass shows one."

Oswald: "With two or more aces we bid and let our partner figure out just how many aces we hold. In general if we make the cheapest bid at our disposal we show exactly two aces—if we make a higher bid we show three or four."

Vikings-Lions

Game to Be Televised

DETROIT (AP) — Winning streaks and a share of the lead in their National Football League division are at stake tonight as the Detroit Lions and Minnesota Vikings clash in the first Monday night televised struggle of the 1971 season.

The Lions will be trying to preserve a 37-year record of home opener victories while the Vikings strive for a seventh consecutive victory over their most serious challenger in the National Conference Central Division.

Detroit, whose fans still are shaken by last week's release on waivers of defensive tackle Alex Karras, is listed as a slight underdog.

The winner of the clash between the two squads is expected to have the best chance for the division title. The Lions and Vikings won't meet again until Dec. 11—the next to last game of the season.

Last season, the Vikings captured the division title with a 12-2 record. Detroit was second with a 10-4 mark but managed to gain the playoffs with the NFC's fourth best record.

The 9 p.m. (EDT) nationally televised game is a sellout in 54,418-seat Tiger Stadium even though Coach Joe Schmidt has not made public his choice as the starting quarterback.

Greg Landry, a four-year veteran, is expected to be the starter at quarterback. Landry moved ahead of Bill Munson last season and pre-season games showed no changes.

Defensive lineman Dick Evey, a veteran tackle obtained from Los Angeles, has been thrust into the spotlight by the Lion's decision to drop Karras.

Karras, a three-time All-Pro selection, complained that his being forced into retirement was premature—and many fans indicated they agreed.

Oswald: "East and West could have gone on to seven clubs. If they did this North, South, Blackwood, DOPI and JACOBY MODERN could do no better than double and pick up 960 points."

DR. LAWRENCE E. LAMB

Gas, Cramps Can Be Causes

Chest Pains May Not Be Heart

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb—Is there anything besides heart disease that can cause chest pain? I am 43, female and have had chest pain and a great tightness after lifting, running or any real hard work for about three years.

I have been tested by two doctors, had four electrocardiograms and blood tests. They find nothing and my blood pressure is normal.

The pain or tightness comes from one to several hours later. I am really worried not knowing if it is my heart or if I should be doing something about it. I am about 20 pounds overweight and just over the menopause. I do not get short of breath, but have pain quite often in my left arm and sort of a prickly, electric pain up my neck into my jaw. I also have a lot of stomach gas, bowel trouble and I cough a lot. X-rays have shown nothing in these areas either.

There has never been any heart problem in my family. I do not know what to do. Can you enlighten me? I take no medication except an occasional aspirin. Two Master's electrocardiograms showed a slight irregularity but the doctor said he still didn't think it was my heart.

Dear Reader—Yes there are a number of things that can cause chest pain besides the heart. If I understand you correctly you mean your difficulty occurs several hours after exertion, not during it. I would be a bit more concerned about your problem if it occurred while you were exerting yourself.

Gas trapped in the colon, where it makes a turn under the diaphragm can cause chest pain and also pain in the arm. Muscular "cramps" can also cause chest pain. One of the most troublesome causes is spasm of the esophagus which causes difficulty almost identical to heart pain. The X rays will be negative in this condition, too, unless the spasm actually occurs while the examination is being done.

Your reference to Master's electrocardiogram tests tells me that you have been examined with exercise, and

Findings at Attica Are Confirmed

By BERNARD COHEN
Associated Press Writer

ATTICA, N.Y. (AP) — An autopsy report that nine slain hostages at Attica State Prison died of gunshot wounds has been confirmed by two pathologists asked by the state to re-examine the bodies.

Dr. Henry Siegel, Westchester County medical examiner, said his findings confirmed the report by Dr. John Edland, medical examiner for Monroe County. Edland's findings conflicted with earlier official statements that rebellious inmates at the maximum-security facility slit the throats of some of the hostages as a police assault began last Monday.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Correction Commissioner Russell G. Oswald earlier had supported Dr. Edland's findings that the nine hostages had died of gunshot wounds.

Dr. Siegel said any further information would have to come from the state's Task Force on Organized Crime, which asked him to undertake the re-examination.

Task force spokesman Edward Moran again refused Sunday to give specific answers to questions about the violence in the prison.

"The name of the game is to conduct our inquiry, or investigation, in secret," Moran said. "The name of the game is to secure an indictment and successful prosecution. I will say nothing more than that."

The New York Times said today that the second pathologist, Dr. Michael Baden, deputy chief medical examiner of New York City, also had confirmed Dr. Edland's findings.

In all, 10 prison employees and 30 prisoners died in the violence that began at the prison Sept. 9. Officials said nine of the prison employees and 27 of the prisoners died when state troopers, sheriff's deputies, prison guards and National Guardsmen stormed the prison last Monday.

One hostage died of head injuries reportedly suffered during the takeover. The New York Times quoted Dr. Baden as saying that three inmates died of slashed throats a day or two before the assault.

Lawyers for some of the prisoners said inmates were beaten after the uprising was quelled.

Daniel Alterman and Joshua Roth of the National Lawyers' Guild told reporters that some prisoners were stripped and forced to crawl on hands and knees across a yard under threat of beatings after the rebellion was quelled. Several guards then beat the prisoners as they were led back to their cells, they said.

Medina Case May Soon Go to the Jury

FT. MCPHERSON, Ga. (AP) — The month-long My Lai murder trial of Capt. Ernest Medina could be in the hands of the jury by Wednesday.

When the trial resumes Tuesday, the military judge, Col. Kenneth Howard, will hear arguments on his instructions to the five-man jury of Vietnam veterans. After he charges the jury, there will be final arguments, which could be completed in time for the jury to begin deliberating Wednesday.

Last week Howard altered the trial with a series of rulings which reduced and dismissed some of the charges against the 35-year-old Medina.

The judge reduced the charge that Medina was responsible for the deaths of 100 civilians killed by his soldiers from murder to involuntary manslaughter. This lesser charge carries a maximum penalty of three years imprisonment.

Howard also granted a defense motion for dismissal of the charge that Medina ordered the shooting of a small boy. The judge said there was evidence of at least five children shot in separate incidents and added that "too much confusion in my mind over which one the government is charging Capt. Medina with led to my ruling."

Medina, commander of Charlie Company which swept through the tiny Vietnamese hamlet of My Lai in 1968, is still charged with one murder—shooting a woman lying in a rice paddy.

Rotary Speaker

KELLY BRYANT

"It is not too early to begin making plans for the centennial celebration of Hope, Arkansas," Secretary of State Kelly Bryant told the Hope Rotary Club on Friday, September 17, at a luncheon meeting in the Town and Country. He said the date could be one of three, for a petition for incorporation was filed February 20, 1875, the petition was accepted March 25, 1875, and final papers became effective April 4, 1875.

All early papers were prepared in long hand, but in 1906 when Hope became a city of second class, typing was used to list the names of its 3,407 citizens. This list is on file at the Secretary of State's office in Little Rock and could be a great aid, for instance, in proving residence for a birth certificate. Anyone wanting such information or desiring facts for use in centennial preparations is welcome at the Secretary of State's office.

The speaker, who was recently installed as President of the Secretaries of State from throughout the United States,

Probe Asked of Teacher's Salaries

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Legislative Joint Auditing Committee has been asked to investigate the salaries paid to public school employees of the Bellville School District in Yell County.

Forrest Rozzell, executive secretary of the Arkansas Education Association, said Saturday he had asked for the investigation because some practices in the district were "deplorable and inexcusable."

The salary last year of Supt. George D. Cowger was $20,927. Cowger's wife Irene, who is a teacher, made $14,429 and Logan B. White, an agriculture teacher, received $15,278.

The three, however, give most of their salaries back to the district to be spent on items other than salaries. Cowger said he keeps only about $6,300 of his salary.

Rozzell said the precedent set by the Bellville School District in evading teacher salary laws was an "open invitation" to other school boards to do the same thing.

Hoyte R. Pyle, executive director of the state Teacher Retirement System, said the three are earning retirement credit for the larger salary figures. He said that if every teacher in the retirement system did what Cowger was doing it would cost the state an additional $10 million.

Cowger said the device of high salaries and donations was the only way he had found to keep the Bellville School District operating. The device gets around state laws that require a large percentage of a district's revenues to be spent on teacher salaries.

expressed his appreciation for the many telegrams of congratulation he received at Sarasota Springs, N.Y., during his inauguration. He discussed several aspects of the recent legislature, when over 1,000 acts were considered.

Rotarian Vic Cobb arranged the program and introduced the speaker, who has retained his membership in the local club despite his official residence in Little Rock. President Sam Strong welcomed the guests: Mr. Bryant, Jack Riggs of Little Rock, Donal Parker and Harry Hawthorne.

AP News Digest

SAIGON (AP) — Communist commandos slipped into the outskirts of Phnom Penh today and wiped out two-third of Cambodia's civilian fuel supply, while in South Vietnam enemy sappers inflicted heavy casualties in five attacks just outside of Tay Ninh City.

It was the third time in five days that South Vietnamese forces have been dealt heavy losses in coordinated attacks by North Vietnamese and Viet Cong forces. The Cambodian attack was seen as a serious blow to that nation's economy.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal judge is expected to make a decision this week in a case some environmentalists say will determine whether the Environmental Protection Act of 1969 has a bite to go with its bark.

The case involves a suit brought against the Corps of Engineers over a $387 million project to connect the Tennessee and Tombigbee rivers. A principal issue is the environmental impact statements required under the 1969 law.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Southern school officials, hit with the high cost of busing, are coming to Congress seeking ways around President Nixon's ban on the use of federal funds to help meet the cost.

In at least one case, it is reported that the Department of Health, Education and Welfare has agreed to match a school district's busing costs with a federal grant if the busing program is paid for out of local funds.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Delegates will return to the United Nations Tuesday for the opening of the assembly's 20th session. The admission of Red China, felt now to be a certainty, tops several major items on the agenda. Also facing the delegates is the choice of a successor to retiring Secretary General U Thant.

FT. MEADE, Md. (AP) — Two helicopter crewmen who figure in two of the four charges against Col. Oran K. Henderson were scheduled to take the witness stand today as Henderson's court-martial enters its fifth week.

The fliers figured in original reports of atrocities at My Lai. Henderson is accused of failing to follow up those reports.

Forrest City Curfew to Continue

FORREST CITY, Ark. (AP) — Mayor Willard Whittaker of nearby Madison said Sunday night that he probably would continue imposing a curfew every night until his city marshals are able to return to work.

Two of Madison's city marshals were injured in a shooting incident at Madison Friday night.

Whittaker said the State Police will continue investigating the shooting today.

Late Sunday night, a spokesman for the marshal's office said that it was quiet at Madison.

Whittaker placed the predominantly Negro town under curfew after the shooting incident Friday. No incidents were reported Saturday night.

Injured in the shooting incident were Herbert Fleming, black city marshal at Madison;

A. J. Ragan, Fleming's white deputy; Malcom Gorman, who is white; Mrs. Eulene Gorman; and the Gorman's 15-year-old daughter, Coretta.

Mrs. Gorman was hospitalized in Memphis in critical condition with gunshot wounds in the chest.

The others were less seriously injured.

A State Police spokesman said the shooting occurred outside the Gorman's residence. He said statements made in regard to the shooting were conflicting.

Rabbi Dr. Maurice N. The holy day is observed one day by Reform Jews, two days by Conservative and Orthodox Jews.
